well Iron & Steel Co., is in the South this week on business.
—Will Bowen Jr. and Rev. D. R.
Moore were hunting on Tuesday and succeeded in killing nine birds.
—We are informed that Rev.
Sparks is carrying on a protracted meeting at South Perry with marked success.
—Our correspondents have been a little backward in coming forward this week. Perhaps this is a cocoa-nut.
—We do all kinds of Job Work at this office in the best style and at bottom prices. Call and see us or send orders.
—When you want to purchase dry goods read the advertisement of the Old Corner Store and you will learn where to go.

yesterday afternoon returned a verdict of $1500 for the plaintiff. A motion has been made to set the verdict aside.
—Al. G. Field & Co's minstrels showed here on Thursday evening.
It is the best show of the kind that has been here for some time and well deserves the patronage of the amusement loving people. All the parts were played to perfection and Signor Dawn in his pyramid act was immense.
—Burglars have been operating in this city for a few nights past.
On last Sunday night the house of Ed L. Davenport, city editor of the Gazette was entered, the thieves securing sixty cents. Other houses were entered but the losses were light. It is evidently the work of tramps who have been loitering around this place for some time.

A Chestnut for Our Teachers.
The following problem has been sent us with the request to publish for the entertainment of our teachers. We do so and request that solutions be sent to this office and we will publish the names of teachers furnishing correct solutions. That the problem is capable of an intelligent and practical solution there can be no doubt:
There is a field of wheat containing 24 acres, whose perimeter is 256 rods. I own 1/4 of the grain.
How wide a strip must I cut around the outside of said field to harvest my share and no more?

—Do not wear artificial teeth that are uncomfortable. Why punish yourself to save a few dollars in good work. You can have the benefit of improved appearances by calling on Dr. D. Finney, Murphy Building, Logan, O.
—Why is it you can tell at a distance many persons who wear artificial teeth? It is because the maker has no taste for the natural, and prefers to use his cheap ware's that are disgusting to the better class of Dentists. For good fitting and natural appearing artificial teeth, call on Dr. D. Finney, Murphy Building.
